The Delaware State Fire Marshal's office has determined that last night's fire that damaged a New Castle, Delaware house was accidental.

The blaze, reported shortly before 10:00 pm, occurred in the unit block of Onaway Place in the Garfield Park neighborhood. The Minquadale Fire Company arrived on the scene with flames observed on the rear of the dwelling.

State fire investigators were called to the scene to conduct the investigation. The fire was caused by discharged fireworks igniting the roof causing an estimated $25,000 damage. There were no reported injuries. The American Red Cross responded to provide emergency assistance to one adult.
